

Antonio Galloni
presents
vinous
explore all things wine

August 2017

---

Domaine Samuel Billaud
Chablis Grand Cru "Vaudésir" 2015
Burgundy, France

91 Points

Healthy pale yellow. Pineapple, fresh apricot and smoky oak on the nose. Very rich but salty wine with surprising depth and stony minerality. Showing more soil and stone than fresh fruit today but the wine's mineral energy suggests that it has a bright future. Finishes thick and long, with repeating saline minerality. This struck me as like a larger-scaled version of the Mont de Milieu.
(ST)