Maison Samuel Billaud

Chablis “Grand Cru Vaudésir” 2015

Burgundy, France

Score: 90

Subtle but not invisible wood frames fresh, ripe and softly exotic aromas that display notes of white peach, melon and ocean breeze wisps. There is excellent concentration to the almost chewy broad-shouldered flavors that also exhibit a touch of wood on the almost salty finish that offers perfectly good but not exceptional complexity and persistence. Like several wines in the range, this is really quite forward and should be accessible in its youth.
